CORELLIAN TRADING ACADEMY PHILOSOPHY

Our mission at Corellian Trading Academy is to bring the highest quality training to our clients.

Our approach differs from our peers, in that each and every member of our mentor teaching team has enjoyed a lengthy, proven career working at some of the biggest and most successful financial institutions in the world.

From these mentors, we are able to draw from an enviable pool of intellectual capital, expertise and in-depth product knowledge.

“At Corellian we take enormous pride in everything that we do. Our mentors drive success within student groups and it is absolutely our aim to deliver an unparalleled educational experience that will help each individual or institution to achieve their goals!”

Graeme King CEO

OUR APPROACH TO FOREIGN EXCHANGE EDUCATION

One of the biggest benefits of enjoying a role within the institutional world has always been the opportunity to learn from some of the most dynamic people in financial markets.

It has traditionally been the case that new entrants to this world, such as young traders or those being introduced to new products would have the opportunity to spend time with different product experts within their institution.

The experience of immersing oneself with people offering different skillsets and being taught different styles (of trading for example) from people in different areas of the institution is invaluable when trying to forge a lengthy, successful career.

Through our mentors we are able to offer this style of experience led, fully immersive learning and development in our classrooms.

WHAT SETS US APART

Most of the courses in this industry use academics or classroom taught individuals in an attempt to improve people's understanding and trading capabilities.

What sets Corellian apart from the competition is the fact that all of our teachers have 'lived and breathed' financial markets over an extensive period of time.

All our mentors, without exception, are highly experienced former financial market participants and experts in the modules that they teach.

They are in the unique position of being able to draw on their own substantive experiences, rather than teaching from a purely academic background.

We believe that by using this mentor driven, experience-focused approach, we have created a teaching platform that provides everything needed to gain a fundamental understanding of every aspect of the Foreign Exchange markets, trading and products.

Our aim: to start you on the path to career success and longevity.
